20. University-Wide Task Force on Lesbian and Gay Issues records, 1969-1994.

UA 3.22.1

- 3.0 cubic feet
- The records of the University-Wide Task Force on Lesbian and Gay Issues consist of five series: Final Report, Focus Group and Surveys, Working Papers, Articles and Reference Materials, and Work Groups and Committees.
- The Final Reports series consists of volumes one, two and three of the report. Volume I contains a history of the task force, recommendations, history of lesbians and gays at Michigan State University, and hopes for the future. Volume II consists of transcripts of forums, responses to open-ended questions from the survey, and codebooks which give statistical information used to analyze the surveys. In addition, there are transcripts of forums from Lesbian and Gay focus groups. This series retains the original order of the report.
- The Focus Groups and Surveys series contains transcripts from focus groups not included in the final report. They are excerpts taken from the transcriptions of the focus groups and compiled by subject. There is also a report summarizing the process of the survey and the focus groups. The series contains blank surveys that were handed out to faculty staff and students as well as the data from the questionnaires.
- The Working Papers series is comprised of documents relating to the general business of the Task Force and work groups. It contains executive meeting minutes, memos, notes, Gay and Lesbian Faculty group papers, and correspondence. Also included are documents about recommendations to the university including those to the Military Education Advisory Committee about ROTC issues.
- The Articles and Reference Materials series consists of articles from newspapers and magazines, including local sources, about issues relevant to the Task Force. The reference materials consist of policies from other universities, cities, and national groups on topics such as domestic partnership and housing.
- The Work Groups and Committees series consist of items generated by the specific work groups and the Publicity Subcommittee which was a part of the task force. Included are memos, correspondence, and notes.
- Additional materials: A CD-ROM with additional electronic versions of the task force's final report is contained in a small box within Box 1844. Included are final reports produced by individual work groups.
- The small box also contains a tape recording of the Minority Issues forum.
- Audio tapes of interviews may not be reproduced and identifying names should not be published.

21. Women's Resource Center records, 1972-2016.UA 8.2.2

- 0.5 cubic feet
- Folder 5, 8, 14 contain materials relevant to LGBT issues.
- This collection contains flyers, reports, and assorted guides from the Women's Program/Women's Resource Center at Michigan State University. The flyers advertise workshops and events celebrating women's achievements and women's history week. Other events focus on issues such as LGBT and racial concerns. There are two reports outlining the minority presence at different campuses across the country, and list the minority organizations as well as the affirmative action officers. Also included are resource guides which outline activities and programs for women at MSU. There is also a video of the event, "Women Matter: Celebrating Women Achieving Excellence," from May 1, 2002. Gwendolyn Norrell was the key note speaker and faculty and staff were honored at the event.

22. Women's Studies Program records, 1970-2006.UA 16.176

- 4.0 cubic feet
- This collection contains information about the development of the Women's Studies Program at Michigan State University. MSU, as part of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC), utilized research and input from the other member institutions (primarily Big-Ten) in the establishment of the Women's Study Program. Of particular interest are the files about issues at the Michigan State University campus, including pornography and discrimination.
- Information about an anti-LGBT incident that occurred in Abbot Hall in 2002 can be found in this collection.

Student Groups23. Alliance of Queer and Ally Students records, 1963-2014.*UA 12.3.24

- 4.0 cubic feet
- The Alliance of Queer and Ally Students originated in 1970 as the Michigan State University Gay Liberation Movement, a registered student organization. Its objective was to provide lesbian and gay students with representation in student government, educate the public on issues of sexual orientation, and to counter discrimination and harassment. It played a crucial role in the passage of the city of East Lansing's now historically significant non-discrimination ordinance in 1972.
- In 1977 the name of the group changed to the MSU Gay Liberation Council. Subsequently, it was renamed the MSU Lesbian/Gay Council, then the Alliance of Lesbian-Bi-Gay Students (ALBGS). In 2005, the student organization was renamed the Alliance of Lesbian, Bisexual, Gay, Transgendered and Straight Ally Students. In 2010, the name changed to Alliance of Queer and Ally Students.
- Records consist of announcements, correspondence, flyers, and minutes of the organization. There are also newsletters, event flyers, and material relating to Lansing and East Lansing, Michigan, LBGTA groups and women's groups. There are also newsletters, event flyers, and other material relating to Midwestern and National LBGTA groups. Electronic Resources includes meeting minutes, agendas and other student group-related text documents.

- Student-produced television documentary film entitled “Some Call It Funny” mentioned in the 1972 minutes. The film features gay students at MSU. (Box 2582, Folder 7)
- Digitized version of “Some Call It Funny” is available for viewing in the Archives.
